

ELL Oral Response Rubric

Student Name: _____ Date: _____

Objective: _____

	Vocabulary	Content Explanation
Does Not Meet Standards	Cannot use vocabulary from the unit in the explanation.	Does not explain the content clearly. Gets confused during the explanation. Does not understand the content being explained.
Needs More Practice	Tries to use vocabulary from the unit in the explanation, but does not use the vocabulary appropriately.	Has a limited grasp of the content being explained. May only be able to explain the very basic main ideas regarding the content.
Good	Uses several vocabulary words from the unit in the explanation. Vocabulary may not be used appropriately all the time.	Explains the content clearly, with some details. Does not get confused while explaining. Has an understanding of the content being explained.
Excellent	Uses many vocabulary words from the unit in the explanation. Vocabulary is used appropriately most of the time.	Explains the content clearly, with many details. Obviously has a strong understanding of the content being explained.

ELL Oral Response Rubric

Student Name: _____ Date: _____

Objective: _____

	Vocabulary	Content Explanation
Does Not Meet Standards	Cannot use vocabulary from the unit in the explanation.	Does not explain the content clearly. Gets confused during the explanation. Does not understand the content being explained.
Needs More Practice	Tries to use vocabulary from the unit in the explanation, but does not use the vocabulary appropriately.	Has a limited grasp of the content being explained. May only be able to explain the very basic main ideas regarding the content.
Good	Uses several vocabulary words from the unit in the explanation. Vocabulary may not be used appropriately all the time.	Explains the content clearly, with some details. Does not get confused while explaining. Has an understanding of the content being explained.
Excellent	Uses many vocabulary words from the unit in the explanation. Vocabulary is used appropriately most of the time.	Explains the content clearly, with many details. Obviously has a strong understanding of the content being explained.